HCM 2001 – independent redistricting commission; recommendations

Outlines several objections to various aspects of the AIRC's draft congressional and legislative maps as raised by the Arizona Joint Legislative Redistricting Committee, and relating to the following constitutional criteria:

- Compliance with the US Constitution and the Voting Rights Act
- Equal population
- Geographical compactness and contiguity
- Respect for communities of interest
- Use of visible geographic features, city, town, and county boundaries, and undivided census tracts
- Competitiveness
- Party registration and voter history
- Improper consideration of places of residence of incumbents and candidates

Recommends that the AIRC commence a new mapping process for the congressional and legislative districts in comport with the Arizona Constitution.
